best hand to cure all forms of secret diseases of the skin, and solitary habits of youth, is DR. KINKELIN, N. W. corper of Third and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, one and a half squares from the Exchange, Philadelphia.

Take Particular Notice.—There is a habit which boys teach each other at the academy or college—a habit indulged in when by themselves, in solitude, growing up with

Few of those who indulge in this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system is shattered, feel strange and unac-countable feelings, vague fears in the mind. The individual becomes feeble, he is unable to labor with accustomed vig-or, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak, he is dull and irresolute, the countergance is downess. be is dull and irresolute, the countenance is downcast, the eves without natural lustre, shamefacedness is apparent.—

If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his senses tellhim that this is caused by his early follies.

Too many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas' how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising youth, who might have been an ormament to society, has faded from the earth!

Young Men!—Let no false modesty deter you from making your cast known to one who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend you. He who places himself under DR. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide his honor as a gentleman, and in whose boson will be for ever locked the secret of the patient.

HURT'S VERMIFUGE.

THERE is perhaps no disease to which children are exposed that is so universal and fatal as Worms; persons of all ages are subject to it, and if neglected it may prove rainous. Then why will you hesitate when you can always have a preventor in your bouse at very little expense, viz. Hart's Unricale! Vernifuge. The Medicine stands preeminent—the rapidity with which it expels Worms is truly remarkable. Strict attention is all that is required.
